

Small and Simple

Prosperity Poem 115

By small and simple acts and ways
Our futures come to pass
And so we ought to choose today
The ways that bless at last

For time speeds by and races on
And seeds we've planted grow
Then let's arise each waking dawn
And act on what we know

Small and simple will often lead
To great and glorious things
So set good habits with all speed
And watch the wealth this brings

Dream big indeed, and make a start
Small steps will do just fine
Leverage time - it's just plain smart
And works with laws divine

Let "small and simple" work in you
Develop heart and mind
Then confidently follow through
And live what you've designed
