

The Best Tool

Prosperity Poem 59

Of all the tools which I might use
To help my wealth to grow
My mind is first - it's what I choose,
The best tool that I know

I can collect ideas from friends
Not "reinvent" the wheel
I can reap wholesome dividends
Creating something real

This world will always gladly pay
For things which they desire
And my best tool provides a way
To "think" what they require

And with my mind I work to build
Increased life for every soul
With my best tool I will grow skilled
And reach my dreams and goals
